

PARENTAL CONSENT FORM

Title of event: Community Outreach & Volunteerism for The Good News Community Kitchen

Disclosure Policy:

If you agree to allow your child to participate with this organization, the things your child may come in contact with may be confidential: family names, home of record, income, and situational needs. That means the information will be private in nature and expected to remain private. I want to let you know that it is my responsibility to make sure that your child is safe. Please discuss with your child the rules of engagement you prefer your child to honor when conducting community outreach. Your child will be expected to comply with our workplace policies as well. Your child will be expected to review all policies prior to conducting any task on behalf of the organization.

Understanding:

Do you have any questions about what was just mentioned? If you think of any questions in the future please feel free to contact me at your convenience at info@tgnck.org or directly contacting the office.

Agreement:

Do you give your child permission to volunteer and be a vital part of this organization?
